

2 for the Price of None

ways you can show support for Haiti

Earthquake survivors in Haiti lost everything, including their shoes. Share Your Soles is a non-profit charity organization devoted to providing shoes to those in need. Dig into your closet and bring us your shoes.

Haiti Shoe Drive

Collection locations:

- Baumhart Hall, 2nd floor, Water Tower Campus
- Lewis Towers, 4th floor, Water Tower Campus
- Corboy Law Center, Lewis Library, 6th floor, Water Tower Campus
- Information Commons, Main floor, Lake Shore Campus

A Breakfast Breakdown:

Lessons, Observations, and Implications from Medical Responents in Haiti

Dr. Christine Sajous, MD, FAAP
Associate Professor
Pediatrics, Neonatology
Loyola Univeristy Medical Center

Attend a continental breakfast discussion to meet Loyola pediatrician, Dr.Christine Sajous. Dr. Sajous, Haitian native, recently traveled to Haiti to offer her immediate medical support. Come and hear her story.

Following the discussion join us to process donations in preparation for delivery.

Date: Saturday, February 27

Time: 9:30 - 11:00 a.m.

Location: LUMA, Multi-Purpose Room
Water Tower Campus

This event is free, but space is limited.
Reserve your seat now!

LUC.edu/SCPS (under News and Events)

Learn more:

School of Continuing and Professional Studies

LUC.edu/SCPS

(312) 915-6501

scps@luc.edu

Thank you to the following Loyola departments and organizations for your support:

Habitat for Humanity

Information Commons

Institute of Pastoral Studies

Lewis Library

Newsroom students