

The Illinois Healthcare Ethics Committee Forum (IL HEC Forum) at the University of Illinois at Chicago and The Neiswanger Institute for Bioethics And Health Policy
Loyola University Chicago Stritch School of Medicine

PRESENTS

Ethical Issues in Palliative and Hospice Care

Friday, January 9, 2009

8:30AM – 3:00 PM

Location: Loyola University Medical Center, Stritch School of Medicine
2160 S. First Avenue, Maywood, Illinois 60153

Registration and presentations will be in Room 160, Dr. Chen's presentation will be held in Tobin Hall (190)

PRESENTATIONS

8:30-9:00am Registration and Continental Breakfast

9:00-10:30am Palliative Care: Past, Present, and Future

Mary Sheehan, President and CEO
Midwest Palliative & Hospice Care Center
Martha Twaddle, MD, Chief Medical Officer
Midwest Palliative & Hospice Care Center
Josh Hauser, MD, Asst Professor of Medicine and Palliative Care
Northwestern Univ

10:45-11:45am Palliative and Hospice Care: Cases from a Geriatrician
Myles N. Sheehan, SJ, MD, Loyola University Medical Center

Noon-12:30pm Lunch provided

12:30-1:45pm Featured Keynote Speaker :
Pauline W. Chen, MD, Author of the NY Times Best Seller, "Final Exam"
The Art in Being There at the End of Life

2:00-3:00pm Clinical Ethics Case Group Discussion
Kayhan Parsi, PhD, JD, Loyola University Chicago
Lisa Anderson-Shaw, DrPH, MA, MSN, University of Illinois at Chicago

Visit the conference web page for up-to-date schedule: www.bioethics.lumc.edu

