

Lisa Anderson-Shaw, DrPH, MA, MSN

Dr. Anderson-Shaw is the director of the Ethics Consult Service at the University of Illinois Medical Center (UIMC) in Chicago, which she helped to design and implement in 1998. Most of the clinical case consultations are conducted by her and she has also helped to develop a secured web-board for case consultation review by her peers. Dr. Anderson-Shaw currently serves as co-chair of the UIMC Ethics Committee and developed an orientation program for new members of the UIMC clinical ethics consult team. She is a member of the University of Illinois at Chicago (UIC) Institutional Review Board.

In 2003, Dr. Anderson-Shaw launched the UIMC sponsored "Illinois Health Care Ethics Committee," a virtual discussion board where she serves as moderator. She is a member of the Institute of Patient Safety Excellence at UIC, a group dedicated to issues that impact patient safety across the disciplines. Her work has been published in the Journal of Medical Ethics, the Journal of Clinical Ethics, The American Journal of Bioethics, Journal of Nursing Administration's Healthcare Law, Ethics & Regulation and Bone Marrow Transplantation. She is also on the editorial board for CHART--Journal of Nursing in Illinois and reviews for Critical Care Medicine, Saunders Book Company and the American Nurses Association Publications. Her research relates to the identification of ethical issues in routine ambulatory care settings, ethics consultation in the emergency department, and the concept of a "donor advocate," related to living organ donation.
