

Mission and Ministry:

Grand Rounds

Thursday, March 26th @ 5:30 pm, Faculty Dining Room

All are welcome to enjoy:

Renowned scholar and speaker in the area of faith-based healthcare

How to Sustain Spirit While Following Your Vocation

“We also treat the human spirit” is a Loyola promise that begins at home. Many enter medicine for vocational reasons: they think they have the ability and they want to help people. However, the actual conditions of medical practice can defeat their spirit. We will explore how medical caregivers stay alive while they help people stay alive?

Sponsored by: SSOM Ministry, LUHS Mission and Ministry, Institute for Bioethics

* Bioethics Grand Round Credit offered for Students
