

DRESS

Students are expected to dress professionally with a white coat and name tag that states "medical student" for ALL preceptor/mentor visits, chaplain-mentor experience, or ANY time that they are with patients (including standardized patient exercises). If considered inappropriately dressed by the supervising faculty, attending or house staff member, the student will not be allowed to participate in the activity.