Clinical Skills for Third Year

- You must complete all assigned work to start clerkships next week
  - Use free time wisely
- If there is a sign in sheet: Sign in!!!!
- You should have received group assignments for activities
  - Otherwise contact Kelly Larkin

Approach to This Week

- Lots of asynchronous online work
  - Just do it
- Interactive learning
  - Simulations
  - On line modules
  - Small group learning
- Lots of “talking heads”
  - Mostly done with that yesterday!
Asynchronous Online Work

Mandatory Annual Compliance Requirements
Online Modules in HealthStream, complete by Thursday June 27th @ 5pm:

1. LUHS—2019 Infection Prevention Annual Competency
2. LUHS—Annual Disclosure Statement
3. LUHS—Annual Regulatory Compliance Competencies 2019
4. LUHS—Code of Conduct
5. LUHS—Environment of Care, Life Safety and Emergency Management 2019
6. LUHS—Ventricular Assist Device (VAD) Awareness Training 2019
7. TH—Confidentiality and Network Agreement

Asynchronous Online Work

• EPIC Training
  – On line modules
  – They are interactive
  – Cannot just click through

Asynchronous Online Work

• Previous in class lectures
• Now review online!
  – Legal Talk
  – Quality and Patient Safety
• Complete a brief quiz post talk
  – Open book, open online lecture
  – Complete to document review
Fit Testing and Tb Testing

- Free time to get testing done
- Call Student Heath
  - 708-216-8563 OR 888-LUHS-888

Tuesday June 25th

- What You Need To Know, SAS Panel Discussion & Small Groups
  - Read The Third Year Survival Guide
  - What to expect in first rotation, student perspective from M4s
  - 1st rotation specific session (compliments clerkship director session)
  - If 1st rotation is elective, go to group of your 2nd rotation
  - Optional tours of hospital

Tuesday, June 25th

- Meet your Clerkship Directors
  - Interactive session
  - Introduction and Q&A
  - Opportunity to interact with school leadership
Wednesday June 26th

- One required lecture/session
- Introduction to Radiology
  - 1145a – 1215p
  - Discuss basics of the vertical curriculum

Wednesday June 26th and Thursday June 27th

- BLS Re-Certification, valid 2 years - KEEP YOUR CARD
- Review required video and required and optional readings BEFORE
  - Training Session Location = Maguire Building, Room 2812
  - See Schedule sheet for time scheduled

Wednesday June 26th and Thursday June 27th

- IV and Phlebotomy
  - PowerPoint, Checklists, NEJM article and video on IV insertion
  - May draw blood/start IV on each other
  - Also have arm simulator present
  - Not interested in medical students passing out! Let someone know if you have trouble with your own blood draws.
  - See Schedule sheet for time scheduled
Wednesday June 26th and Thursday June 27th

- Navigating and Evaluating the Clinical Learning Environment
  - Interactive and small group sessions
  - Some need to know stuff
  - Professionalism and ethical small group discussions
    - Designed by one of your own!!!

Friday June 28th

- First PCM 3 session
- Becoming the third year medical student you want to be!

Dress for Procedures

- Because you will use needles for IVs and phlebotomy, WEAR CLOSED SHOES
  - No flip flops
  - No sandals
  - No open toe shoes
- Dress all week is casual
  - No white coats
Complete Online Evaluation

• Changes made based on your feedback
• Evaluation deadline:
  – Midnight, Sunday July 15th, 2018